
TC Energy appoints two new independent directors

CALGARY, Alberta – Nov. 7, 2024 – News Release - TC Energy Corporation (TSX, NYSE: TRP) (TC Energy) is pleased to announce the appointment of two new independent directors, Scott Bonham and Dawn Madahbee Leach, to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Bonham brings extensive governance, finance, and leadership experience, notably in the technology sector. He has served on the boards of multiple private and public companies, including his current board appointments with Loblaw Companies Limited and the Bank of Nova Scotia. Prior to this, he was co-founder of GGV Capital, an expansion stage venture capital firm, where he played a pivotal role in the firm's expansion and growth from 2000 to 2015.

Ms. Leach brings a depth of experience with Indigenous relations and business strategy. She is the current General Manager of the Waubetek Business Corporation, an Indigenous financial institution providing financial services to Indigenous entrepreneurs across Canada. Among other roles, she also serves as Chairperson of the National Indigenous Economic Development Board, an organization providing advice and guidance to the federal government.

“We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Bonham and Ms. Leach as new directors to the Board,” said John Lowe, chair of TC Energy's Board of Directors. “With their extensive experience and proven leadership, they will be valuable additions to our Board and the stewardship of TC Energy's strategic vision and long-term growth.”
