CompuGroup Medical Unveils CGM INDEX.AI: Revolutionizing Document Automation in Healthcare

Launches innovative solution that simplifies document management, continuing to maintain leadership in harnessing technology to transform healthcare delivery and help healthcare providers focus on their patients

Richardson, Texas – January 28, 2026 – CompuGroup Medical (CGM), a global leader in healthcare information technology and revenue cycle management services, is proud to announce the launch of CGM INDEX.AI, an innovative document automation solution designed to streamline administrative processes in healthcare settings. Built to transform the way healthcare providers manage documents, CGM INDEX.AI ensures increased efficiency, reduced administrative burdens, and enhanced patient care.

In today's fast-paced healthcare environment, the ability to effectively and accurately manage vast amounts of information is critical. CGM INDEX.AI leverages cutting-edge artificial intelligence to automate document processing, freeing healthcare providers from time-consuming administrative tasks and allowing them to focus on what truly matters—delivering exceptional patient care.

CGM INDEX.AI integrates seamlessly into existing CGM electronic health record (EHR) systems, providing a user-friendly interface that simplifies the management of vital documents. Key features include intelligent data extraction and summarization, automated document categorization, and real-time indexing. These
