BRINGING YOU WHAT'S NEXT™

WHAT'S NEXT

Getting here is only the beginning. Great Lakes Grain can help you market your grain effectively.

Talk to your local FS grain originator about how Great Lakes Grain can work for you.

Our expert Great Lakes Grain team can help you to tailor a grain marketing plan that is designed to your farm and your financial needs. With conveniences like an online offer centre, virtual banking and a grain originator with the right tools to help you succeed. You have control of your marketing, from the middle of the field or your office chair.

We offer FOB farm pick up and delivered end user bids for corn, soybeans and wheat. On-time shipping and industry-leading fast payments for your delivered grain contracts, including EFT (electronic fund deposit). Competitive bids with the option to market our online offer centre; offering more deferred shipping months than any other competitor. IP soybean and wheat contracts are available.
