

All Weather at Home Receives 2024 Social Services Award on National Philanthropy Day for Longstanding Community Support

Celebrating 22 years of partnership with Habitat for Humanity to strengthen communities across Alberta

EDMONTON, AB, (November 21, 2024) — All Weather at Home, formerly All Weather Windows, attended the 2024 National Philanthropy Day Awards where they proudly received the Social Services Award for its dedication to fostering community resilience and affordable housing initiatives in Alberta. Nominated for the award by Habitat for Humanity, this honour recognizes All Weather at Home's 22-year partnership with the organization, including contributions of over $2 million dollars for impactful housing projects across the region.

Presented at the Edmonton Convention Centre on November 15, the award ceremony gathered organizations from across Alberta to celebrate National Philanthropy Day and the spirit of giving. This day acknowledges individuals and organizations whose generosity and support improve lives and strengthen communities.

"All Weather at Home's rebrand represents more than a new name; it's a renewed commitment to supporting the communities who make our work possible," said Colin, Co-CEO of All Weather Group. "Community has always been at the heart of our work, and this award reflects our dedication to helping Albertans thrive."

Jillene, Co-CEO of All Weather Group, added, "At All Weather at Home, we believe in building sustainable, long-term partnerships focused on strengthening families, providing shelter, supporting education, and promoting health and wellness. We're honoured to play a role in building a brighter future together."

Since 2002, All Weather at Home has donated time, products, and financial resources to Habitat for Humanity, including projects in Fairview, Slave Lake, and Edmonton. Their dedication extends beyond donations, with hands-on support for builds and local events. This commitment has empowered families to build equity and security, opening the door to brighter futures for generations to come.
