

(Figure 3 – Oblique view looking southwest along a three kilometer corridor of mineralized structures extending from NW Australian to McPhee’s Reward. Inset photographs show examples of gold-bearing quartz veins. Dips are generally 35-40 degrees northwest.)