2023 Annual Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship Recipients

TEMECULA, Calif. — (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — Nufactor[®], a specialty infusion company and subsidiary of FFF Enterprises Inc. announces its 2023 scholarship recipients. The scholarship program annually grants 10 awards of $1,000 to qualifying students.

Congratulations to our 2023 Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship recipients:

- Blake Skipworth
- Caitlyn Myers
- Elias Linn
- Fatima Celis Galindo
- Jack Davis
- Jocelyn Doerr
- John Waters
- Karissa Doerr
- Logan Bularz
- Yohance de Souza

The scholarship was created to honor the memory of 5-year-old Eric Dostie, a boy with hemophilia who was tragically murdered on August 27, 1994. Awards will provide financial assistance to students who either have hemophilia, a similar bleeding disorder, or who have a family member with a bleeding disorder. Scholarships are awarded to those students who can best demonstrate academic achievement, community service, and financial need. Students must be citizens of the United States and enrolled full-time in an accredited two- or four-year college program.

Patrick M. Schmidt, chief executive officer of FFF Enterprises, said, “I congratulate each of these deserving Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship recipients and wish them much success. It’s inspiring to think of all the good they will accomplish in college and beyond.”

As part of the application process, applicants submitted an essay describing how their education will be used to serve humankind and encourage self-improvement and enrichment.

Applications for the 2024 Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship are now open. Visit the Nufactor Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship website to learn more about the program.
