ANGRY BIRDS NOT SO MINI GOLF CLUB DEBUTS AT AMERICAN DREAM

New 18-hole mini golf course will take guests on an exciting adventure through Angry Birds' Bird Island and Avian Academy beginning October 1

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (September 25, 2020) – The Angry Birds have landed at American Dream! Starting Thursday, October 1, guests can hone their mini golf skills while helping our avian heroes save the day at North America's first and only Angry Birds mini golf experience, Angry Birds Not So Mini Golf Club.

Immersive Storytelling

Guests enter Angry Birds Not So Mini Golf Club with one mission: to help save Bird Island and Pig Island. At each mini golf hole guests help fan favorite avians such as Red, Chuck and Bomb, plus the Pigs, get one swing closer to saving their beloved islands.

Interactive Mini Golf Experience

- The course is laid out into six groups of three holes, mirroring themes from the adored Angry Birds franchise featuring: a soaring 67 ft. Bird Aviation plane, a towering 20 ft. tall model of Bird Island, in addition to Pig Island, the Pig Lab and Submarine, Eagle Island, and Avian Academy.
- The first stop of the experience is the Bird Aviation plane, where a host in the cockpit greets guests and helps them select their 'test sphere' (ball) and 'slingshot launcher' (putter) and receive their 'assignment' (scorecard).
- Next, guests navigate a series of 18 challenges (holes), launching (teeing) their 'spheres' (balls) across obstacles toward a series of targets. Along the course, a cast of larger-than-life characters and extraordinary backdrops serve as socially shareable, family fun.
- When academy training (the 18-hole course) is complete, guests' assignments are personally stamped with Red's footprint – acknowledging that they have successfully completed all tasks.

Exclusive Retail

- The immersive experience doesn't end when training is complete. Upon exiting the course, guests are directed towards the pro shop which features exclusive Angry Birds 'training' materials and supplies like themed character golf balls and apparel for the entire family, only available at American Dream.

"Nothing excites us more at American Dream than being able to offer our guests completely new and fresh experiences," said Mark Ghermezian, Co-CEO at American Dream. "Angry Birds Not So Mini Golf Club is the perfect addition to our one-of-a-kind destination, allowing our guests to 'fly' into the world of Angry Birds, an experience they won't find anywhere else."

"When it comes to the scale of this course, there's certainly nothing mini about it," said Ville Heijari, CMO at Rovio Entertainment. "We're delighted at the level of detail invested in bringing the world of our avian (and piggy) friends to life, and can't wait to hear what our fans think of the experience."

Tickets for Angry Birds Not So Mini Golf Club are $20.00 + tax and are available for purchase now at <https://www.americandream.com/venue/angry-birds-mini-golf>. The fully immersive Angry Birds experience also includes a life-size photo opp with Red, Chuck, and Bomb at the entrance, and will include uniquely themed Angry Birds party rooms that can be privately rented through the American Dream group sales team very soon.
