

Vulnerabilities in security cameras expose users to privacy and security risks

68%

of cameras are currently running outdated firmware

Nearly

4/10

cameras could be vulnerable to a cyberattack

23%

of organizations fail to use unique passwords

Source: primary research data from Genetec Inc. Research conducted on a sample of 44,763 cameras connected to systems that are part of the Genetec opt-in product improvement program.