

Honoring Achievement, Five CPAmerica Member Firms Named to USA Today's Top 100 Most Recommended Tax and Accounting Firms

Gainesville, Fla. (March 3, 2026) – Five CPAmerica member firms were recognized on USA Today's third annual Top 100 Most Recommended Tax and Accounting Firms lists. The firms were selected through surveys conducted by Statista, an independent market research institute and statistics platform, which collected feedback from tax and accounting professionals, as well as their clients. The rankings of the top 100 firms are based on the total number of recommendations from peers and clients, along with additional company data.

"I am proud to honor these exceptional member firms whose dedication to excellence continues to elevate our entire profession," said Grace Horvath, President and CEO of CPAmerica. "Their leadership, innovation, and unwavering commitment to delivering outstanding client service set a standard that extends well beyond their own organizations. These firms are not only meeting the expectations of today's marketplace, they are shaping the future of accounting."

CPAmerica has 90 member firms located across the United States. Among the distinguished professionals recognized by USA Today are the following CPAmerica members:
