

Aeromexico and Delta Air Lines to Connect Guadalajara and Detroit

- May 1, 2019, the airlines will start to serve the route between Guadalajara and Detroit.
- The new service raises to eight the number of direct routes served from the capital of the State of Jalisco to the United States.

Guadalajara, Jalisco, December 10, 2018. – Aeromexico and Delta Air Lines continue to strengthen their joint cooperation agreement alliance by adding the Guadalajara-Detroit route to their transborder network starting May 1, 2019, with a focus on promoting technological and industrial development in the region.

Guadalajara reported 4.1% growth in its State Economic Activity in the first half of the year compared to the same period last year, which is above the national average, according to the local government.

For its part, Detroit, considered the center of the automotive industry, has developed diverse economic opportunities beyond the sector, with the emergence of new growth poles such as technology.

Aeromexico and Delta seek to leverage these business dynamics to build a bridge in the sky to encourage trade and further develop the bilateral relationship between Mexico and the United States.

The new route will be operated three times a week with 99-seat Embraer 190 airplanes as follows:

Guadalajara-Detroit*

AM 2734	8:57 a.m.	2:20 p.m.	Monday, Wednesday, Friday
---------	-----------	-----------	------------------------------

Detroit-Guadalajara*

AM 2735	3:45 p.m.	7:52 p.m.	Tuesday, Thursday, Sunday

Times published are local to each country and are subject to changes without notice.*

Aeromexico and Delta Air Lines thus reaffirm their commitment to offering an increasing number of destinations between Mexico and the United States, while providing the best service that characterizes both airlines.
