Concrete pumps are increasingly important in modern construction.

Concrete pump operators can now have their skills and abilities professionally certified by the BC Construction Safety Alliance.

POINTS OF INTEREST

- ▶ Speakers representing industry, unions, and the Minister of Labour on hand for the launch of the Certified Concrete Pump Operator Program.
- ▶ 5-years in the making, this initiative was a collaboration across the entire construction industry led by BCCSA.
- ▶ The Certified Concrete Pump Operator program is a North American first, likely making its way across Canada and the US.

Don't miss out....
