

VICTOR MINE - JULY 2022

- Mine opened July 26, 2008
- Operations ended June 2019
- 8.3M carats of diamonds recovered
- $9M in Corporate Social Investment between 2008 and 2019
- Average of 500 employees on site during operations, of whom as many as 30% were Indigenous
- $843M+ spent with Indigenous businesses and joint ventures since 2004
- $215M in royalty and Impact Benefit Agreement payments to governments and communities since 2006
- WSP Golder was awarded the contract to close and rehabilitate the site at the end of 2020
- By the end of 2022, 25 buildings have been removed with the accommodations facility to be removed by April 2023
- The open pit has fully recharged and the surrounding aquifer has rebounded
- By the end of the 2023 winter road, more than 750 truckloads of recyclable materials will have been removed from site for resale/reuse with proceeds being shared between Attawapiskat Enterprises and Priestly Demolition
- 1 million cubic metres of overburden and muskeg has been placed as reclamation cover to date
- 1.4 million trees have been planted and 5,676 kg of seed applied to date
- Active closure expected to be complete by Q3 2023
- Long-term monitoring will continue until at least 2039

SNAP LAKE MINE - AUG 2022

- Mine opened July 25, 2008
- Operations ended December 2015
- 7.8M carats of diamonds recovered
- $17M in Corporate Social Investment between 2003 and 2015
- Provided more than 7,700 person years of employment during construction and operations
- $2B+ spent with NWT businesses and joint ventures since 2004
- Met/NUNA, a joint venture between Nuna Logistics and the North Slave Metis Alliance, received the contract to close and rehabilitate the site at the end of 2021
- By the end of 2022, 72% of the mine infrastructure had been demolished
- More than 2,700 tonnes of equipment is being removed from site for resale/reuse
- All openings to underground to be capped with concrete and covered
- Close to 200ha of the site will undergo active rehabilitation
- About 30,000 cubic metres of overburden stockpiled for closure use during operations
- 600 kg of native grass seeds will be used during revegetation
- At the end of active closure and rehabilitation two winter weather haven buildings to accommodate a remote monitoring team and a "Foldaway" shop to store equipment and supplies will remain on site until they are no longer needed