

Certified District Solar Energy Systems by Ward

- There are 8,830 solar energy systems registered with the District’s RPS program—with 6,238 certified within the District. The figure shows where the systems certified for the District’s RPS program are located.
- Solar energy systems can be found in all eight wards of the District.
- To date in 2020, the number of RPS-eligible solar energy systems has increased in all wards.
- The total capacity associated for all solar energy systems is about 117.6 megawatts (MW), with about 91.7 MW located in the District as of April 9, 2020.

