Quorum Announces Changes to its Board of Directors

Calgary, AB, March 18, 2019 – Quorum Information Technologies Inc. (TSX Venture: QIS) ("Quorum" or the "Corporation") announces the appointment of Robert Quirion as a director of the Corporation. Quorum also announces that John Carmichael has resigned as a director of the Corporation.

Mr. Quirion has over twenty years of automotive software experience, including leading the DealerMine organization. DealerMine's Sales and Service Customer Relationship Management products and Business Development Centre Services are used by over 410 car dealerships across North America. Mr. Quirion founded DealerMine Inc. in 2001, and DealerMine was subsequently acquired by Quorum on October 31st, 2018

"Bob is an accomplished business leader and we are confident that he will add great value to the Quorum Board," said Maury Marks, President and CEO of Quorum. "His experience building a high-growth, profitable company that serves many dealerships, including some of the largest dealer groups, will be extremely valuable in enabling Quorum to meet its future goals."

In other news, John Carmichael has resigned from the Board of Directors in light of his role as CEO and Interim Registrar of the Ontario Motor Vehicle Industry Council. Quorum wishes to thank Mr. Carmichael for his many years of contributions to the Corporation.

"John has served on the Board since 2003 and he was our Board Chairman from 2009 to 2013," stated Mr. Marks. "His automotive experience and business acumen have benefited the Corporation and our shareholders. While we are sorry that he can no longer serve on the Quorum Board of Directors, we wish John continued success in all his future endeavors. I would like to personally thank him for his leadership and positive support over the years."
