NEULION® DIGITAL PLATFORM

As the only complete end-to-end video solution, the NeuLion® Digital Platform simplifies the digital video workflow and provides all the tools you need to get your content into consumers' hands quickly and easily, ensuring they will be loyal, long lasting customers. The NeuLion Digital Platform helps broadcasters, operators, sports rights holders and media companies build, deliver and grow their digital business with stunning video and personalized, interactive experiences across any screen.

ONE PLATFORM. ONE PROVIDER. ONE POWERFUL SOLUTION.

PREPARE

Quickly upload live and on-demand video content in bulk or at once, and compress files using our own encoding and transcoding services that support the broadest range of formats for optimal delivery, including efficient adaptive bitrate encoding for live streams.

MARKET

Successful direct-to-consumer businesses are dependent on flexible data-driven marketing capabilities to maximize user acquisition, conversion and retention. Our best-in-class marketing tools allow you to identify, manage and analyze user segments to create effective marketing communications programs.

DELIVER

Deliver beautiful video effortlessly with no buffering, delays or video errors. With a focus on video quality, NeuLion delivers stunning video in the highest quality, up to 4K Ultra HD and HDR on any connected device.

EXPERIENCE

Maximize the value of your video content by creating personalized, interactive experiences that connect with your audience on every screen. From content discovery and recommendations to advanced video features, we've got what you need to deliver only the best to your viewers.

MANAGE

Organize, edit, optimize and publish your robust video library effortlessly. No matter the size, our Content Management System (CMS) provides detailed control over metadata attributes, such as packaging, merchandizing, scheduling, geo-controls and more.

MONETIZE

Unlock and uncover additional revenue with our monetization suite and let us handle the entire purchase experience from secure global payment support to end-user billing and more. NeuLion makes it easy for any combination of business models in order to drive purposeful ROI and exceed your business needs.

MONITOR

Put an end to the guessing game. Leverage actionable insights and data to monitor how your service is performing and ensure your viewers are receiving the best possible experience, so they watch longer and return more often.
