Centerra Gold Announces COO Appointment

Toronto, Canada, August 17, 2022: Centerra Gold Inc. (“Centerra” or the “Company”) (TSX: CG) (NYSE: CGAU) announced today that Paul Chawrun will be appointed as Chief Operating Officer (“COO”), effective September 6, 2022.

Mr. Chawrun is a mining engineer with over 30 years of experience in the mining industry. His most recent executive position was as COO of Teranga Gold Corporation, prior to its acquisition by Endeavour Mining. At Teranga, he was a key part of a team that transitioned a small single asset gold producer into a mid-tier mining company. Mr. Chawrun oversaw two producing mines, including responsibility for the construction and commissioning of one of them, with the final five consecutive years delivering record production and exceptional Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) performance. His prior previous work experience includes positions in operations at Fording and Suncor Energy, as well as technical services and corporate development roles at various mine development companies including Director of Technical Services for the development of the Detour Gold project. Initially starting his career as an exploration geologist for Corona Corporation, Mr. Chawrun is a professional engineer with a Bachelor of Science (“B.Sc.”) in Mining Engineering from Queen’s University, also holding a B.Sc. in Geology from McMaster University and a Master of Business Administration from Athabasca University.

Scott Perry, President and Chief Executive Officer of Centerra stated, “Paul brings a wealth of technical expertise and years of experience to the Centerra team, maximizing performance of existing operating mines in addition to bringing a mine into operation. We very much look forward to Paul helping the Company move forward with a renewed focus on our core operations, the Mount Milligan Mine and the Öksüt Mine. I’m also excited for Paul to champion our development and future growth opportunities, including the advancement of the Goldfield Project.”
