Now Accepting Applications for Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship
Submission deadline is March 1, 2023

TEMECULA, Calif. — Nufactor[®], a specialty infusion company and subsidiary of FFF Enterprises Inc., is now accepting applications for its 28th annual Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship. Ten awards of $1,000 each will be granted to qualifying students who can best demonstrate scholastic achievement, community service and financial need.

The scholarship was created to honor the memory of Eric Dostie, a 5-year-old boy with hemophilia who was tragically murdered on August 27, 1994, due to the high cost of his healthcare. Awards will provide financial assistance to students who either have hemophilia or von Willebrand disease, or who have a family member with hemophilia or von Willebrand disease. Applicants must be United States citizens, live in the United States, and be enrolled full-time in an accredited two- or four-year college program in the United States.

“Since its inception 28 years ago, the Eric Dostie Memorial Scholarship has helped 280 students pursue their dreams of higher education,” said Patrick M. Schmidt, chief executive officer at FFF Enterprises Inc. “At FFF, we understand the financial impact a bleeding disorder can have on individuals and their families. This scholarship is about ensuring a quality higher education remains within financial reach for these bright, talented young people.”

Scholarship applicants must submit a 400-word essay describing their motivation for pursuing higher education, their area of study, obstacles they have had to overcome, and how they plan to use their education to benefit and enrich humankind.

Congratulations to our 2022 Eric Dostie Memorial College Scholarship recipients:

- Andrew Morrison
- Blake Skipworth
- Caitlyn Myers
- Christopher Ambrosio
- Eliana Horowitz
- James Cosman
- Lily Tignor
- Nathan Stone
