VIRTUAL

THE KING CENTER
449 AUBURN AVE NE • ATLANTA, GA 30312

Join us this King Holiday for this empowering and engaging NV365 workshop: The Courageous Path: Mission Possible with Nonviolence365. This workshop will explore how we can protect freedom, justice, and democracy through the practical application of Nonviolence365 (Kingian Nonviolence).

Participants will engage in dynamic discussions and interactive sessions that highlight the enduring relevance of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s principles in today's world. The workshop will provide an exploration of nonviolent strategies, demonstrating their effectiveness in addressing contemporary social and political challenges. Through compelling real-world applications, attendees will learn how to utilize the power of Nonviolence365 to foster inclusive communities, advocate for justice, and uphold democratic values. The workshop will emphasize the importance of courage and commitment in the ongoing struggle for human rights, inspiring participants to take actionable steps toward creating a more just and equitable society.

Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding of nonviolence and equip yourself with practical tools to become an agent of transformation and change in your community. The King Center is proud to lead the way in promoting Dr. King's legacy, empowering individuals to pursue a courageous path toward creating the Beloved Community!

KING

HOLIDAY

MISSION POSSIBLE:

*PROTECTING FREEDOM, JUSTICE, AND DEMOCRACY
IN THE SPIRIT OF NONVIOLENCE³⁶⁵*

Beloved Community Teach-In

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2025

The purpose of the Beloved Community Teach-In is to educate K-12 students about Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Mrs. Coretta Scott King's legacies and to champion the completion of their unfinished work. Our goal is to establish an annual day of action and advocacy for creating the Beloved Community. The King Center has educators, trainers, lesson plans, and other resources for facilitating Teach-In discussions. In keeping with the theme, K-12 lesson plans for the 2025 Teach-In will reinforce the knowledge, skills, and dispositions students need to not only be positive contributors to the creation of the Beloved Community but also how they can be a part of protecting freedom, justice and democracy.

Full lesson plans with objectives, activities, and measurable outcomes will be sent upon registration. To join The King Center, along with educational institutions and organizations around the globe, for the 2025 Beloved Community Teach-In, please register at <https://thekingcenter.org/what-we-do/beloved-community-teach-in/>

Beloved Community Service Project & Empowerment Fair

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 2025, 11:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M. EST

Join us for impactful community service projects as we unite to create positive change and make a lasting impact in the community!

We aim to support underserved individuals and families by distributing essential care kits and offering an interactive experience focused on career development, financial literacy, and health & wellness.

Project Highlights:

Care Kit Project

- Collect, assemble and provide care kits to provide immediate relief to underserved individuals and families including our homeless and unsheltered neighbors, and new mothers and their children.

Empowerment Fair

- An interactive event offering practical resources on career development, financial literacy, and health & wellness. Services provided will include resume reviews, and budgeting tips.

How Can You Help?

Get involved by volunteering, serve as a community partner or sponsoring these impactful projects! You can also contribute to the Economic Starter Kit with in-kind donations or support the care kit initiative by shopping from our Amazon Wishlist.

For more information on how to get involved, please reach out to Hayat Nawd, Director of Volunteer Services at hnawd@thekingcenter.org or visit <https://thekingcenter.org/volunteer/>
