

About Sanjay Singhal:

Sanjay Singhal is a Canadian, Tech Entrepreneur and author best known for founding and selling Audiobooks.com. He created the 500 Startups Canada fund in 2016 and actively remains an ongoing investor in over 20 startups. His memoir “Zero to Tesla,” published in 2018, chronicles the whole messy journey.

In 2018, he stepped into the Hospitality industry with the opening of his first cocktail lounge Coffee Oysters Champagne. With a French flare to its menu, it has successfully been recognized as the largest and most accessible champagne bar in the city. This venture was followed by the opening of Marked, a South American inspired restaurant with a focus on wood-burning cuisine. Both are located in the heart of Toronto’s Entertainment District.

These days Sanjay's passion and attention lies in philanthropy. He launched the Nikean Foundation in 2019 to fund mental health research, focusing on novel psychedelic therapies to treat mental disorders including anorexia, depression, and PTSD. The Nikean Foundation currently funds research trials around the world, with a focus on developing knowledge and infrastructure in Canada.

