Schneider honored for strengthening inclusion for people with disabilities in Mexico

GREEN BAY, Wis. (April 26, 2021) – Schneider (NYSE: SNDR), a premier provider of trucking, intermodal and logistics services, has been honored by Éntrale AC for the company’s commitment to strengthen inclusion for people with disabilities. Éntrale is an initiative that promotes labor inclusion initiatives in Mexico.

“We are helping build bridges for a very skilled talent pool that is often overlooked,” said Bernardo Rodarte, vice president of operations in Mexico. “Respect for all and embracing diversity of thought and experience is at the heart of what we do.”

Schneider is one of 111 organizations involved in Éntrale selected based on key performance indicators for inclusion and accessibility strategies and processes including hiring people with disabilities, creation of inclusive and accessible products and services and promoting inclusive practices.

Schneider far exceeded the average score of other participating transportation companies.
